

University of Alaska Anchorage
Center for Community Engagement & Learning
3rd Symposium for an Engaged University

Community-engaged Research and Public Policy: A Faculty Intensive

August 20-21, 2007

Monday, August 20, 2007

Consortium Library 307

- 9:00-9:45am      Welcome, Introductions, and Opening Remarks
Nancy Andes, UAA Center for Community Engagement & Learning

Michael A. Driscoll, UAA Academic Affairs
    "Faculty Expectations and Rewards for Community Engagement"
- 10:00-11:00am    Community-based Research
Robert Hackett, Princeton University's National Community-based
    Research Network and the Bonner Foundation
- 11:00-11:45am    Identifying Community-based Research Projects
Faculty Participants Discuss Attributes and Challenges of their Potential
    Projects in Smaller Groups
- 12:00-2:00pm     Lunch with an Invited Panel of UAA Faculty, Community Partners, and Students

Douglas Causey, Biological Sciences
Steve Colt, Environmental Studies
Shirley Valek, Nursing
George P. Charles, National Resource Center for American Indian,
    Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian Elders at UAA
Cheryl E. Easley, College of Health and Social Welfare
James LaBelle, Alaska Native Studies
Diane Erickson, Adult Education

    "Accomplishments and Challenges in Doing UAA Community-based Research Projects"

- 2:15-3:00pm      Refining Community-based Research Projects
Faculty Participants Continue Discussion of Attributes and Challenges of their Potential Projects in Smaller Groups
- 3:00-3:30pm      Vision, Hopes, and Resources
Nancy Andes, Center for Community Engagement & Learning
-

Tuesday, August 21, 2007

Consortium Library 302A

- 9:00-10:00am      Community-based Research and Public Policy
Robert Hackett, Princeton University's National Community-based
Research Network and the Bonner Foundation
- 10:15-11:00am      Invitation to Join Princeton University's National Community-based Research Network and UAA Faculty Study Group
Nancy Andes, Center for Community Engagement & Learning
- 11:00-11:30am      Open Discussion for Moving Forward
Faculty Participants Discuss Potential Projects and Study Group
Purposes
- 11:30-11:45am      Closing Comments